

Ball type pins

The ball type pins are used for all applications requiring the hand to be quickly removed after insertion or shifting.

The ball type pins are fitted and removed quickly, without tools and using one hand only.

Numerous dimensions are available in metric or American units.

5 types of head are available: T or L shapes, knob, protected knob or ring.

